

High-Quality Stainless Steel Detention Locks

Engineered for exceptional durability and tamper resistance, our locks deliver unmatched security and performance.

Mechanical

Willoughby Locking Systems offers an extensive range of robust mechanical locks designed to meet the rigorous demands of correctional facilities. Engineered for maximum security and reliability to ensure the safety of staff and inmates alike.

Accessories & Hardware

Complete your facility's locking systems with our wide range of accessories and hardware.

Electromechanical

Integrate with modern security technology while keeping the trusted mechanical reliability. Ideal for modern detention centers, these electromechanical locks offer enhanced control and monitoring capabilities.

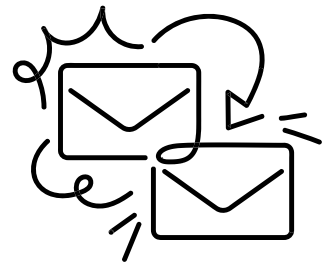

More Coming Soon!

We are constantly introducing new products to the Willoughby Locking Systems product line. Stay connected with us for the latest innovations in correctional locking solutions.

Stainless Steel Detention Locks

Designed with durability, corrosion resistance and most importantly safety in mind, Willoughby Locking Systems products are made with the same high quality stainless steel you have come to associate with Willoughby for decades.

Customer Success Focused

Your success is our mission. We go beyond manufacturing locks with outstanding customer service and on-going support, enabling security solutions that adapt with your needs.

Contact Us for a Quote

WilloughbyLocks.com

Sales@WilloughbyLocks.com

(800) 428-4065

MADE IN THE USA
since 1947